
Sample Assignment

Course:	Writing for Publication – Life Writing
Unit:	Writing for Publication – Life Writing

* Please note:

The following is a sample of an assignment and is NOT an actual assessment.

Explanation:

This assignment is part of the assessment for the unit of study which addresses knowledge and skills required to produce Life Writing.

Assignment overview

Students need to complete two tasks for this Assignment: a short story and an analysis.

Assignment details

Task 1

Write a short story about an aspect of your life of up to 750 words.

Select from the topic areas addressed in the learning materials, or another topic of your choice.

Include an engagement with some of the contemporary influences on life today that have been discussed in the learning materials.

Task 2

Write a short analysis of your text explaining your reasons for choosing the point of view that you have and evaluating the audience appeal of your work. (500 words maximum)